UTV FEST

March 10-12, 2023
Golden Valley, AZ

Check this out! This is going to be the adventure of a lifetime. We are travelling back in time. Golden Valley was named after a company from Hollywood, California, that went into partnership with Crystal Collins to develop most of the land south of Arizona State Route 68 into 2.5-acre (1.0 ha) parcels.

One of the rides will take us to the town of Oatman, AZ. This town was founded in 1906, and by 1931, the mines had produced more than 1.8 million ounces of gold.

Oatman is also known for the wild burros that call Oatman home. This town with an old western appearance has been an enjoyable place and a tourist attraction for the burros wandering around with springiness. The wild donkeys can be hand-fed with 'burro chow', naturally known as hay cubes, which are readily available in the town.

The other ride will take you to several make shifts bars out in the middle of no where and one has a stripper pole.

We hope you can join us for this adventure back in time!
